The Bach Choir's annual performances of the St Matthew Passion, sung in English, have moved London audiences for generations. The Easter story will once again be brought alive as audience and performers share in the overwhelming beauty of Bach's music. The chance to hear this masterpiece in such a special atmosphere is guaranteed to be an inspirational and uplifting experience.

David Hill conducts Florilegium, one of Britain's most outstanding period instrument ensembles, together with a brilliant line-up of soloists. The concert begins at 11am, with an interval for lunch.

This event is expected to sell out in advance of the performance date, so please book early to avoid disappointment.
